Thomas Harris' first Hannibal Lecter book was named Red Dragon, but its 1986 movie adaptation was instead dubbed Manhunter, and here's why. While it wasn't until The Silence of the Lambs became a blockbuster movie that Harris' books got rocketed into the pop culture stratosphere, it didn't really take that long for Red Dragon to be adapted.

The order in which they were published is Red Dragon, Silence of the Lambs, Hannibal, and Hannibal Rising. The order in which they happen, chronologically, is Hannibal Rising, Red Dragon, Silence of the Lambs, and Hannibal. However, I recommend them to be read in the order of how good they are. And that, in my opinion, is Silence of the Lambs (there's a reason this is the most famous one, and it's not just because of the masterpiece of a film), Red Dragon (just as good as Silence, but ...
